A decision has been made by the Motor Trades Association of Australia (MTAA) to appoint Mr Stephen Jenkins, General Counsel and Head of Employment Relations for the Motor Traders' Association of New South Wales, as an MTAA representative on the Motor Vehicle Insurance and Repair Industry Code of Conduct Administration Committee (CAC).

The CAC has endorsed Mr Jenkins as the new Chair of the CAC, replacing outgoing Chair, Mark Czvitkovits.

The CAC wishes to extend its deep appreciation to Mr Czvitkovits for his contributions to the CAC, as well as for his instrumental role in establishing constructive and productive relationships between the insurance and repair industries.

The CAC remains committed to continuing its work to ensure the Code assists both repairers and insurers in achieving a balance of fairness in their dealings with each other.
